Campaign Third Wednesday Calls - All calls - 5pm PT/6pm MT/7pm CT/8pm ET

March 18, 2026, call will feature MICHAEL NAGLER

Join us for a screening and discussion of the film, The Third Harmony: Nonviolence and the New Story of Human Nature

Drawing on interviews with veteran activists like civil rights leader Bernard Lafayette, scientists like behaviorist Frans de Waal and neuroscientist Marco Iacoboni, Congresswoman Pramila Jayapal, political scientist Erica Chenoweth, futurist Elisabet Sahtouris and others, THE THIRD HARMONY will help students and the public to better grasp just what nonviolence is and how it works.

From March 17-19, you can view the movie for free at <https://www.mettacenter.org/groupscreening> with the password Peace.

Michael Nagler, Professor Emeritus of Classics and Comparative Literature at UC Berkeley, co-founded one of the first Peace and Conflict Studies Programs in the United States. In 1981, he also co-founded the Metta Center for Nonviolence, where he continues to dedicate his life to the values of nonviolence and spiritual discovery. Among many achievements, his commitment to these principles earned him the Jamnalal Bajaj International Award in 2007 for “Promoting Gandhian Values Outside India.”

Nagler is the co-host of Nonviolence Radio, a popular radio show and podcast focused on exploring nonviolence. He has authored numerous articles and influential books, including The Search for a Nonviolent Future, The Nonviolence Handbook, and The Third Harmony. In 2020 he directed and produced an award-winning documentary on nonviolence, also titled The Third Harmony. A sought-after speaker, teacher, and mentor, he is actively involved in peace efforts at the Metta Center for Nonviolence.
