SEASON FOR NONVIOLENCE

Contact Your Member of Congress and Participate In Congressional Zoom Meetings for a DoP
Advocate for a historic, cabinet-level Department of Peacebuilding as we also celebrate the Season for Nonviolence from January 30 to April 4! Peace is a human right. Human suffering is a national security issue. We can prevent and reduce violence. In honor of Season for Nonviolence, we ask you to:

Celebrate those who teach us about nonviolence and peacebuilding and honor the peacebuilder within each of us: the Dalai Lama, Mahatma Gandhi, Dolores Huerta, Azim Khamisa, Rev./Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., John Lennon, Avon Mattison, Thich Nhat Hanh, and more.

Educate our children and ourselves about nonviolence. See these resources, quotes, and lesson plan ideas: www.agnt.org/season-for-nonviolence; www.64daysofpeace.org; www.mettacenter.org; and www.mkgandhi.org.

Join the Movement to Advocate for Cosponsors for the DoP Bill
Advocate during the months of February and March, when we are contacting our own members of Congress and conducting Zoom meetings with Congressional offices. A new Department of Peacebuilding bill (HR 1111) is being introduced in Congress. If you want to participate in (or help organize) Zoom meetings, please contact Nancy Merritt at nancy@peacealliance.org. We need your help telling members of Congress to honor the Season for Nonviolence by cosponsoring the DoP bill, which calls for an Office of Peace Education and Training, as well as six other important peace and nonviolence offices.

Help us all make history, save lives and money, and transform our society from one of violence to one of peace and prosperity for all.
