JAN 30 – APR 4 2024
SEASON FOR NONVIOLENCE

Contact Your Member of Congress and Participate In Congressional Zoom Meetings for a DoP

Advocate for a historic, cabinet-level Department of Peacebuilding as we also celebrate the Season for Nonviolence from January 30 to April 4! Peace is a human right. Human suffering is a national security issue. We can prevent and reduce violence. In honor of Season for Nonviolence, we ask you to:

Celebrate those who teach us about nonviolence and peacebuilding and honor the peacebuilder within each of us: the Dalai Lama, Mahatma Gandhi, Dolores Huerta, Azim Khamisa, Rev./Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., John Lennon, Avon Mattison, Thich Nhat Hanh, and more.

Educate our children and ourselves about nonviolence. See these resources, quotes, and lesson plan ideas: www.agnt.org/season-for-nonviolence; www.64.daysofpeace.org; www.mettacenter.org; and www.mkgandhi.org.

Join the Movement to Advocate for Cosponsors for the DoP Bill

Advocate from 1/30 to 4/4/2024, when we are contacting our own members of Congress and conducting Zoom meetings with other Congressional offices. The current Department of Peacebuilding bill (HR 1111) was introduced in Congress in 2023. If you want to participate in (or help organize) Zoom meetings, please contact Nancy Merritt at nancy@peacealliance.org.

We need your help asking members of Congress to honor the Season for Nonviolence by cosponsoring the DoP bill, which calls for an Office of Peace Education and Training and six other important peace and nonviolence offices.

Help us all make history, save lives and money, and transform our society from one of violence to one of peace and prosperity for all.
