A World of Nonviolent Solutions Is On Its Way

For 13 years, Campaign Nonviolence has mobilized people to build a culture of peace and active nonviolence, free from war, poverty, racism, and environmental destruction. In a recent email from Peace e Bene/ Campaign Nonviolence, they challenge us to imagine a world of nonviolent solutions. And state that in fact, it's already on its way!

Peace e Bene has dedicated 2026 to collecting and sharing real life examples of this vision of nonviolence. “Every single day, Rivera Sun has been sharing programs, policies, and practices that prevent violence, heal harms, and reduce destruction, with a special focus on alternatives to systemic and structural violence—the laws and institutions that embed harmful practices into a society’s way of life. “

Action Days, September 21 – October 2

September 21st is International Day of Peace. October 2nd is International Day of Nonviolence. This is also the time of Campaign Nonviolence Action Days. Last year, millions of people participated in 5,640+ actions during Campaign Nonviolence Action Days, Sept 21-Oct 2. This year, people across the USA and around the world are exploring 2026: The Year of Nonviolent Solutions by uplifting powerful policies, programs, and practices like restorative justice, community safety initiatives, conflict resolution in schools, living wages, universal basic income, affordable housing, debt abolition, reparations, renewable energy, nonviolent struggle, civilian-based defense, and more. In her book “Winds of Change,” Rivera Sun writes about a living democracy, a revolution that is only a heartbeat away. “The revolution would be a revolution of the heart, a remembering of ancient truths, a coming full circle for humanity, a healing from the millennia-long sickness of the soul, a return home to our one-and-only planet, a reunion of brotherhood and sisterhood with each other and the Earth. This was the revolution of democracy.”
